

9. Help Module

A Help module is accessible to all users once they log into the system. This module appears as the last module at the bottom of the navigation tree.

Once users click on the Help module, the User Guide will appear:

Clicking on the headers will bring up that section for viewing.